

Public Speaking Documentation and Reflection protocol
(this may be copied and completed online)

Topic of Presentation: _____

Presenter: _____ Date: _____

I) Summarize the content of the presentation using appropriate academic vocabulary.

II) In an effort to refine your opinion on the topic presented, reflect upon your interpretation of the message delivered by the presenter and your opinion with evidence to support both.

III) Choose one idea/concept from the presentation to further your understanding by conducting outside research- List the topic and a bulleted list of 5 fascinating facts as well as your source site.

Primary Source requirement: For students using this document for Level I credit in their STEM portfolio- please complete this part of the assignment with a primary source article from the author or on a similar topic.

Cite the article: Author, (date) Title, Publication, volume, pg #, url

Using the Circular Approach to Analyzing Primary sources- please respond to these prompts.

Observe-Identify the key points of the article, one could think about claims/evidence

Reflect- Why is this important ? What can be learned by examining this source

Question-What questions does this article generate- (possibly-who, what, when , where , how)